

SAVE THE DATE

Asia
Society®

Celebration of Asia Week: Asian Journeys

New York, NY
March 22, 2010

6pm – 8pm Gala Reception
8pm – 11pm Dinner & Dance

Fashion! Art! Food! Fun! Music! Special Guests! Dine & Dance! Lively Auction!

Asia
Society®

725 Park Avenue | New York, NY 10021

Support Asia Society

Join us to celebrate the launch of Asia Week in New York City with this exciting signature benefit event.

Begin the adventure with a chic cocktail reception, exclusive fashion show, private Museum exhibition viewing, musical interludes, and delicious tastes of Asia. The journey continues at an elegant private venue for Dinner featuring a Celebrity Chef, a fascinating array of Special Guests to host each table, and a lively auction of fantasy journeys to Asia and other rare experiences. Top off the festivities with a sizzling dance party.

Visit www.asiasociety.org/specialevents for updates & details or email viprsvp@asiasociety.org

Pair of nghe. Later Le dynasty, 16th–17th century. Bat Trang kiln. Glazed stoneware. National Museum of Vietnamese History, LSb 13572 and LSb13573. Photo by Kaz Tsuruta, Asian Art Museum of San Francisco

On view in "Arts of Ancient Viet Nam: From River Plain to Open Sea" (February 2–May 2, 2010) at Asia Society, New York. The exhibition is co-organized by Asia Society, New York and Museum of Fine Arts, Houston.