

Corporate Biography

Jeffrey P. Brown

Jeffrey P. Brown is a senior vice president and investment specialist for Capital Group's Private Client Services division with responsibilities including strategic asset allocation and global asset optimization. He also serves as a director of Capital Guardian Trust Company, a Nevada Corporation, and as an investment analyst for Capital Strategy Research, Inc. with research responsibilities for global public policy and politics, with an emphasis on public finance, fiscal and monetary policy, and regulation of financial services, national security and public opinion.

Prior to joining our organization in 1989, Jeff was a principal with Inferential Focus and a CEO of Trans-National Research Corporation, two consulting firms in New York City, serving investment management companies and major corporations.

Mr. Brown began his policy analysis career in 1976, working as an assistant to the Governor of Wisconsin, and later in Washington, D.C., on Capitol Hill. He earned a bachelor's degree in international relations from the University of Geneva and a bachelor's degree in international economics from the University of Wisconsin. He is based in our West Los Angeles office.

Corporate Title(s)

Senior Vice President

The Capital Group Companies Private Client Services division

Director

Capital Guardian Trust Company, a Nevada Corporation

Functional Title(s)

Investment Specialist

The Capital Group Companies Private Client Services division

Investment Analyst

Capital Strategy Research, Inc.

Research Responsibilities

Strategic asset allocation and global asset optimization. Global public policy and politics, with an emphasis on public finance, fiscal and monetary policy, and regulation of financial services, national security and public opinion.

Capital History

- 2002-present — Senior Vice President – Private Client Services division, The Capital Group Companies, Inc.
- 2001-present — Director, Capital Guardian Trust Company, a Nevada Corporation
- 1998-present — Vice President, Capital Guardian Trust Company
- 1996-2011 — Portfolio Manager, Fixed-Income – Private Client Services division
- 1989-present — Investment Analyst, Capital Strategy Research, Inc.

Miscellaneous

Member, CGC PCS Management Committee (2002-present)

Prior History

Business experience

- 1987 - 1989 — Principal, Inferential Focus, NY
- 1985 - 1987 — President, Chief Executive Officer, Global Assessments, Inc., NJ
- 1983 - 1987 — Vice President, Chief Executive Officer, Trans-National Research Corporation, NY
- 1978 - 1983 — Economic Analyst -- International, Congressional Research Service, Washington, DC
- 1976 - 1978 — Special Assistant for economic affairs to the Office of the Governor, State of Wisconsin

Education

B.A. -- University of Wisconsin (graduated 1975) Major: International economics

B.A. -- University of Geneva (graduated 1974) Major: International relations

Hometown/Birthdate

Hudson, Wisconsin -- January 25, 1955

Other Activities

Professional organizations

American Economic Association

Association of Political Risk Analysts

Municipal Bond Analysts Association

National Association of Business Economists

National Economists Club

Cultural and civic activities

Communities in Schools

Los Angeles Library Foundation

Hobbies/Interests

Skiing, antique books and maps, tennis, economic history

Miscellaneous

Based in Capital's West Los Angeles office